

Year 1
	I know I need to follow certain rules to stay safe
	I can search for pictures online
	I can search for pictures online using the alphabet
	I know I need to keep my information safe
	I can put my name and the date on work I produce
	I know that I can use e-mail to communicate

Year 2
	I can choose websites that are appropriate
	I know that I leave a digital footprint online and it can be big or small, helpful or hurtful
	I know what cyberbullying is and what to do if it happens
	I can use 'keywords' to produce the best search results
	I can rate informational websites using a criteria
	I know that not all websites are good sources of information

Year 3
	I know why people use passwords and their benefits
	I know strategies for creating and keeping strong, secure passwords
	I know that people connect with each other online
	I can examine product websites and understand their purpose
	I know different methods used to promote products on websites
	I know the similarities and differences between in person and online communications.
	I can write clear and respectful messages
	I can communicate effectively by e-mail taking into account audience and tone

Year 4
	I know how to be responsible and respectful of my offline and online communities and to be a good digital citizen
	I can think critically about the information I share online
	I know that I can receive messages online that are inappropriate and know how to respond to those messages
	I have strategies that increase the accuracy of my keyword searches and I can make inferences about the effectiveness of these strategies
	I know what plagiarism
	I know when and how it is acceptable to use others work

Year 5
	I can create secure passwords in order to protect their private information and accounts online
	I can create and adhere to a digital citizen pledge
	I know what spam is, the forms it takes, and can identify strategies for dealing with it.
	I can reflect on the importance of citing all sources when I carry out research
	I can write bibliographical citations for online sources.
	I know how photos can be digitally altered
	I know both the positive and negative impacts of altering photos

	Year 6
	I know not to reveal my private information online
	I know what being a good digital citizen is
	I know how to respond to negative digital citizens
	I know that children's websites must protect their private information.
	I can identify secure sites by looking for their privacy policies and privacy seals of approval.
	I know what cyber bullying is and the forms that it can take
	I know different strategies for handling cyberbullying when it arises.
	I can explore how the media can play a powerful role in shaping our ideas about girls and boys.
	I can identify messages about gender roles